YORK & SON

Have now removed from 67 Lancaster Road, Notting Hill, to more central premises

YORK HOUSE,
3 Emperor's Gate,
South Kensington,
LONDON, S.W.

The Map on the back of the cover of this Catalogue shows how easily it is reached from all parts.

Gloucester Road Station on

The Piccadilly Tube Railway,
The Metropolitan Railway, and The District Railway, is only 4 minutes' walk from York House.

Emperor's Gate is close to the South Kensington Natural History Museum, only a few minutes further West along the Cromwell Road, and therefore not far from South Kensington Station.

Besides supplying the Slides of their own manufacture mentioned in this Catalogue, YORK & SON are now

SOLE WHOLESALE AGENTS for the well-known Slides of

WILSON BROS. of ABERDEEN

(Trade Mark G.W.W.—Registered), and keep a stock of 35,000 G.W.W. Slides ready for delivery.

G.W.W. Catalogue on application.

HYMNS.

WORDS ONLY.

- | | | | |
|----|---|----|--|
| 1 | Abide with me, fast falls the eventide. | 23 | Before Jehovah's awful throne. |
| 2 | A charge to keep I have. | 24 | Begone unbelief, my Saviour is near. |
| 3 | Awake and sing the song. | 25 | Blest be the tie that binds. |
| 4 | All hail the power of Jesus' name. | 26 | Crown him with many crowns. |
| 5 | A few more years shall roll. | 27 | Come ye that love the Lord. |
| 6 | All people that on earth do dwell. | 28 | Come ye that love the Saviour's name. |
| 7 | Alas, and did my Saviour bleed. | 29 | Courage brother, do not stumble. |
| 8 | As pants the hart for cooling streams. | 30 | Christian brethren, ere we part. |
| 9 | A long time I wandered in darkness. | 31 | Come let us join our cheerful songs. |
| 10 | As with gladness men of old. | 32 | Come sing with holy gladness. |
| 11 | Around the throne of God in heaven. | 33 | Come ye disconsolate where'er ye languish. |
| 12 | At even ere the sun was set. | 34 | Come to the Saviour, make no delay. |
| 13 | "Almost persuaded" now to believe. | 35 | Come ye thankful people, come. |
| 14 | A little ship was on the sea. | 36 | Come ye sinners, poor and needy. |
| 15 | A widowed mother lost her son. | 37 | Come every soul by sin oppressed. |
| 16 | Am I a soldier of the cross. | 38 | Come, Holy Spirit, come. |
| 17 | Art thou weary, art thou languid? | 39 | Come Holy Spirit, Heavenly dove. |
| 18 | Brightest and best are the sons of the morning. | 40 | Come home, come home. |
| 19 | Brightly gleams our banner. | 41 | Children of the heavenly King. |
| 20 | Brightly beams our Father's mercy. | 42 | Christian! seek not yet repose. |
| 21 | Brief the ending of the day. | 43 | Disposer Supremo. |
| 22 | Brief life is here our portion. | 44 | Down life's dark vale we wander. |

- 45 Days and moments quickly flying.
 46 Dear Jesus ever at my side.
 47 Depth of mercy can there be?
 48 Eternal Father strong to save.
 49 Father of heaven, whose love profound.
 50 Fade, fade each earthly joy, Jesus is mine.
 51 Far from these narrow scenes of night.
 52 Far from my heavenly home.
 53 Free from the law, oh, happy condition.
 54 For ever with the Lord.
 55 From Greenland's icy mountains.
 56 From the cross uplifted high.
 57 From Egypt lately come.
 58 Fierce raged the tempest o'er the deep.
 59 Glory to Thee, my God, this night.
 60 God is love; His mercy brightens.
 61 God moves in a mysterious way.
 62 God is our refuge in distress.
 63 Give me the wings of faith to rise.
 64 Great God what do I see and hear.
 65 Gentle Jesus, meek and mild.
 66 Good Daniel would not cease to pray.
 67 Go work in my vineyard, there is plenty to do.
 68 Go bury thy sorrow, the world hath its share.
 69 Grace! 'tis a charming sound.
 70 God loved the world of sinners lost.
 71 Go when the morning shineth.
 72 Guide me O, Thou great Jehovah.
 73 God who madest Heaven and earth.
 74 God bless our native land.
 75 God bless our Sailor Prince.
 76 God bless the Prince of Wales.
 77 God save the Queen.
 78 How sweet the name of Jesus sounds.
 79 Hark, my soul, it is the Lord.
 80 Here we suffer grief and pain.
 81 How beautiful are their feet.
 82 Hark the voice of Jesus crying.
 83 Ho my comrades! see the signal.
 84 How proud we are, how fond to show.
 85 How doth the little busy bee.
 86 Hark the herald angels sing.
 87 Hail to the Lord's anointed.
 88 Holy Bible, book divine.
 89 Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty.
 90 Heavenly Father, send thy blessing.
 91 Hark the glad sound! the Saviour comes.
 92 How pleasant is thy deep blue wave.
 93 Hark! hark, my soul, angelic sounds are swelling.
 94 Holy angels in their flight.
 95 Have you on the Lord believed?
 96 I heard the voice of Jesus say.
 97 In mercy Lord remember me.
 98 I thank the goodness and the grace.
 99 I will sing for Jesus.
 100 I sing the Almighty power of God.
 101 I want to be like Jesus.
 102 I hear the Saviour say.
 103 I left it all with Jesus long ago.
 104 I was a wandering sheep, I did not love the fold.
 105 I have entered the valley of blessing so sweet.
 106 I've found a joy in sorrow, a secret balm for pain.
 107 I know not the hour when my Lord will come.
 108 I'm a little pilgrim.
 109 I'm but a stranger here.
 110 I would be like an angel.
 111 I lay my sins on Jesus.
 112 I think when I read that sweet story of old.
 113 I am coming to the cross.
 114 I waited for the Lord my God.
 115 I am so glad that our Father in heaven.
 116 I need Thee, precious Jesus.
 117 I hear Thy welcome voice.
 118 I love to tell the story.
 119 I will sing you a song of that beautiful land.
 120 In some way or other the Lord will provide.
 121 I am now a child of God.
 122 Jesu, lover of my soul.
 123 Jesus shall reign where'er the sun.
 124 Jesus meek and gentle.
 125 Jerusalem my happy home.
 126 Jesus who lived above the sky.
 127 Jesus, tender Shepherd, hear me.
 128 Jesus thy name I love, Jesus my Lord.
 129 Jerusalem the golden.
 130 Jesus loves me, this I know.
 131 Jesus is our Shepherd, wiping every tear.
 132 Jesus, Thou needest me.
 133 Jesus Christ is risen to day. Alleluia.
 134 Jesu, the very thought of Thee.
 135 Jesu, the very thought is sweet.
 136 Just as I am, without one plea.
 137 Jesus the water of life will give.
 138 Keep praying at the door.
 139 Kind words can never die.
 140 Knocking, knocking, who is there?
 141 Lord, teach us how to pray aright.
 142 Lord Jesus, I long to be perfectly whole.
 143 Lord, how delightful 'tis to see.
 144 Lord, teach a little child to pray.
 145 Lord, I would own thy tender care.
 146 Love God with all your soul and strength.
 147 Let us gather up the sunbeams.
 148 Lord, a little band and lowly.
 149 Lead me to the rock that's higher.
 150 Lord dismiss us with thy blessing.
 151 Lead kindly light amid the encircling gloom.
 152 Lo! He comes in clouds descending.
 153 Lord thy word abideth.
 154 Lord, if thou thy grace impart.
 155 Let us with a gladsome mind.
 156 Lead, us heavenly Father, lead us.
 157 Light of those whose dreary dwelling.
 158 Love divine, all love exceeding.
 159 Light's abode, celestial Salem.
 160 Little drops of water, little grains of sand.
 161 Lord, I hear of showers of blessing.
 162 "Land ahead," its fruits are waving.
 163 Let me go where saints are going.
 164 Light in the darkness sailor, day is at hand.
 165 My faith looks up to thee.
 166 My God, I have found the thrice blessed ground.
 167 My God, my Father, while I stray.
 168 Mighty God, may we approach Thee?
 169 Mine eyes and my desire.
 170 Must Jesus bear the cross alone.
 171 My rest is in heaven, my rest is not here.
 172 My heavenly home is bright and fair.
 173 My latest sun is sinking fast.
 174 "No condemnation," O my soul.
 175 Nothing but leaves! the spirit grieves.
 176 Not all the blood of beasts.
 177 Now pray we for our country.
 178 Nearer my God to Thee.
 179 Now the day is over.
 180 O happy band of pilgrims.
 181 O God of Bethel by whose hand.
 182 On Jordan's stormy banks I stand.
 183 O come to Jesus now, Jesus is here.
 184 One more day's work for Jesus.
 185 Oh think of the home over there.
 186 Oh bless the Lord my soul.
 187 Onward Christian soldiers.
 188 Once in royal David's city.
 189 Oh bliss of the purified! bliss of the free.
 190 Oh for a heart to praise my God.
 191 Oh happy day that fixed my choice.
 192 Oh to be over yonder.
 193 Oh that the Lord would guide my ways.
 194 O Paradise, O Paradise.

200 O Christ what burdens bowed thy head.
 201 Only an armour-bearer, firmly I stand.
 202 O Lord, my best desires fulfil.
 203 O God of all the strength and power.
 204 O where shall rest be found?
 205 O eyes that are weary and hearts that are sore.
 206 Oh they've reached the sunny shore.
 207 On to Canaan, onward moving.
 208 One there is above all others.
 209 Our blest Redeemer ere he breathed.
 210 One sweetly solemn thought.
 211 Oh have you not heard of a beautiful stream?
 212 Oh for a thousand tongues to sing.
 213 Oh help us Lord each hour of need.
 214 Oh for a closer walk with God.
 215 O worship the King all glorious above.
 216 Oft in danger, oft in woe.
 217 Oft as the bell with solemn toll.
 218 Oh! that the Lord's salvation.
 219 O come all ye faithful.
 220 O God our help in ages past.
 221 O God of truth, O Lord of might.
 222 Pass me not, O gentle Saviour.
 223 Prayer is the soul's sincere desire.
 224 Plunged in a gulf of dark despair.
 225 Pleasant are thy courts above.
 226 Poor and needy though I be.
 227 Praise God from whom all blessings flow.
 228 Rescue the perishing, care for the dying.
 229 Ring the bells of heaven, there is joy to-day.
 230 Rejoice and be glad! the Redeemer has come.
 231 Rejoice to-day with one accord.
 232 Rejoice, the Saviour reigns.
 233 Rock of ages, cleft for me.
 234 Salvation, oh the joyful sound.
 235 Soldiers of Christ, arise!
 236 Sowing the seed by the daylight fair.
 237 Sweet Saviour bless us ere we go.
 238 Shall we gather at the river.
 239 Sweet the moments, rich in blessing.
 240 Sweet is the work, O God, our King.
 241 Stand up! stand up for Jesus.
 242 Sound the battle-cry! see the foe is nigh.
 243 Sometimes a light surprises.
 244 Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer!
 245 Songs of praise the angels sang.
 246 Sun of my soul, thou Saviour dear.
 247 Standing by a purpose true.
 248 Safe in the arms of Jesus.
 249 Saviour, again to Thy dear name we raise.
 250 Speak gently, it is better far.
 251 There is a green hill, far away.
 252 The way is dark, my Father! cloud upon cloud.

248 The great Physician now is near.
 249 Through the valley of the shadow I must go.
 250 Through all the changing scenes of life.
 251 There is a fountain filled with blood.
 252 The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want.
 253 Thou, whose Almighty Word.
 254 Tell me the old, old story.
 255 The shepherd now was smitten.
 256 There is a happy land, far, far away.
 257 There is a land that is fairer than day.
 258 There is a path that leads to God.
 259 There is a gate that stands ajar.
 260 There is a light in the window for thee, brother.
 261 'Tis midnight, and on Olive's brow.
 262 There is life for a look at the Crucified One.
 263 There is a beautiful land on high.
 264 There are angels hovering round.
 265 To-day the Saviour calls; ye wanderers come.
 266 There were ninety and nine that safely lay.
 267 To the hall of the feast came the sinful and fair.
 268 The Church's one foundation.
 269 The day is past and over.
 270 'Tis religion that can give.
 271 There is a land of pure delight.
 272 There is a safe and secret place.
 273 There is beauty all around.
 274 There is a friend, a gentle friend.
 275 Through the day thy love has spared me.
 276 Where high the heavenly temple stands.
 277 When his salvation bringing.
 278 Whither, pilgrims, are you going.
 279 When the dewy light was fading.
 280 We are waiting by the river.
 281 Work, for the night is coming.
 282 We shall sleep, but not for ever.
 283 We sing the praise of him who died.
 284 When I survey the wondrous cross.
 285 What means this eager anxious throng.
 286 We sing of the realms of the blest.
 287 We shall meet in the Eden above.
 288 Who, who are these beside the chilly wave?
 289 When He cometh, when He cometh.
 290 Whosoever heareth, shout! shout the sound.
 291 Who are these like stars appearing?
 292 "We've no abiding city here!"
 293 Who are these in bright array?
 294 While shepherd's watched their flocks by night.
 295 What various hindrances we meet.
 296 With joy we celebrate the grace.
 297 When our heads are bowed with woe.
 298 When all thy mercies, O my God.
 299 We plough the fields and scatter.
 300 Yet there is room! the Lamb's bright hall of 301 Christ, our Saviour, now above.

 302 Conquering kings their titles take.
 303 Give me a draught from the crystal spring.
 304 Give, said the little stream.
 305 Hail! a thrilling voice is sounding.
 306 Hosanna we sing, like the children dear.
 307 How bright those glorious spirits shine!
 308 I love to hear the story.
 309 I think when I read that sweet story of old
 310 Jesu, meek and lowly.
 311 Jesus, our hope, our heart's desire.
 312 Jesus calls us; o'er the tumult.
 313 Lo! round the throne a glorious band.
 314 Lord, as to Thy dear cross we flee.
 315 Home, sweet home.
 316 O! a goodly thing is the cooling spring.

317 O! Jesus, I have promised.
 318 On this day of gladness.
 319 Praise, my soul, the King of heaven,
 320 Ride on, ride on in majesty.
 321 See, Israel's gentle Shepherd stands.
 322 The roseate hues of early dawn.
 323 There's a Friend for little children.
 324 Thou art the way; by Thee alone.
 325 Thy way, not mine, O Lord.
 326 We are but little children weak.
 327 When morning gilds the skies.
 328 Who are these arrayed in white?
 329 Behold the Lamb of God.
 330 In the Lord's atoning grief.
 331 My God and is Thy tab'le spread?

- 25 My long train.
 26 Ticked by a straw.
 27 Uncultivated genius.
 28 Not so bad for me.
 29 Oh, what a guy!
 30 Polishing the under-standing.
 31 Democrats was the laughing philosopher of Greece, but here is a laughing girl of grease.
 32 Open your mouth and shut your eyes.
 33 A wicked joke.
 34 Seven o'clock in the morning.
 35 Seven o'clock in the evening.
 36 The attack.
 37 The defeat.
 38 I say, Bill, hold hard there.
 39 I'll warm you for drinking all the cider.
 40 I'll just draw the cork and have a taste.
 41 How much can I take without being found out?
 42 A swig on the sly.
 43 Ah! ah! he little thinks I'm watching.
 44 Upon my word, I'll tell of you, master John.
 45 Look for the towel before you soap your face.
 46 With a hunch of bread and cheese and a cup of cider, he makes his happy meal.
 47 See how the ploughboy, free from care, enjoys his humble bread and cheese fare.

 52 The knitting lesson.
 53 Here is a nice little summer-house made of an umbrella.
 54 Playing hide and seek.
 55 The amusing letter.
 56 How am I to answer this?
 57 Sad News.
 58 It requires thought.
 59 Your chain shall be loosened and you shall be free.
 60 Pretty pull, pretty pull, how do you do?
 61 English faces. Come and tell me, little bird, who decked thy wings with gold.
 62 English faces. Lost in thought.
 63 English faces. Amiability.
 64 English faces. Flower painting.
 65 English faces. Sisters drawing and needle-work.
 66 Wait a minute, Johnnie dear, and then you shall get on.

PHOTOGRAPHIC SKETCHES OF ENGLISH LIFE AND SCENERY.

- 1 Cockercombe, Quantock Hills. "Fountain heads and pathless groves."
 2 "Conspicuous by absence."
 3 The artist's lunch. "Art feeds the fancy; fancy does not feed the man."
 4 "Behind some tree he waits, the scaly people to betray."
 5 Cockercombe, Quantock Hills. "There is a pleasure in the pathless woods."
 6 His pencil like a creature of his brain, makes nature still more beautiful.
 7 "Baiting for a fish."
 8 "Fishing for a bait."
 9 "All that are lovers of virtue, be quiet, and go a angling."
 10 "A triton among the minnows."
 11 "The rustic bridge which spans the stream where cresses grew."
 12 "Looking into the brook, she saw no fairer image than herself."
 13 The signal, "as she waited for him by the ladder stile."
 14 "Tis but a step down yonder lane, and the little church stands near."
 15 Evening: "I'll meet thee in the lane."
 16 A Somersetshire cot. "Oh! for my lowly thatched cottage."
 17 A cottage interior. "The whitewash'd wall and nicely sanded floor, the varnish'd clock that click'd behind the door."
 18 The cottage pump. "By the pure stream she stood, no purer than herself."
 19 "The sweetest thing that ever grew beside a human door."
 20 The pet donkey. "Better be a live donkey than a dead king."
 21 The cottage door. Will you take a glass of ale, Sir? "Hospitality, all reality, no formality, there you will ever see."
 22 "She read of fairies, but she thought of man; whilst at her feet the limpid river ran."
 23 "Alone, alone; all, all alone."
 24 "They were unto each other all in all."
 25 The old quarry man. "He strikes the rock, and straightway springs a spark like his vain hopes."
 26 Do you dig stones, my man? Yes, I dig stones to seek for bread.
 27 A touch of nature and art (heart).

- The drawing lesson. Sketching from nature; "She paints a picture but she draws a heart."
 "It is the hour when lovers' vows seem sweet in every whispered word."
 No. 1 Question. "He leans upon his gun to say, 'Has any wild fowl died this way.'"
 No. 2. Answer. "I saw a goose fly by apace, if you follow you may win the race."
 "Wet damps the powder, but enlivens the man."
 "With my pipe of tobacco and my friend sitting by me, I would kingdoms resign for my cot crowned with ivy."
 "It was a summer's evening, Old Caspar's work was done, and beside his cottage door, was sitting in the sun."
 His little grandchild sat by his side, whilst he read to her short stories of giants and fairies.
 The cottage carpenter. No 1. The wood is hard and he is dry.
 The cottage carpenter. No. 2. He wets his whistle, and greases his saw.
 The grindstone is to the tool what play is to Jack. It sharpens the dull boy.
 "The stream which bubbled o'er her pitcher's brim, was like her childhood, sparkling, pure."
 "Out at the gate, and down by the brook, where the violets grow in their shady nook."

THE REWARD OF COVETOUSNESS.

- 1 There once lived a king of France whose son was passionately fond of hunting, and frequently went to the forest to enjoy the pleasures of the chase.
- 2 In the forest lived an old charcoal burner, whom the prince occasionally visited when he was tired of hunting, often sharing his meal, which consisted of radishes and water.
- 3 After the prince became king, the old charcoal burner went to his majesty, and presented him the largest and finest radish he had ever grown.
- 4 The monarch received him with great affability, and gave him a thousand ducats as provision for his old age.
- 5 A lord, overhearing their conversation, thought, "If the king gives so much for a radish, what will he give me for a more suitable present?"
- 6 Thereupon he bought a large dray-horse, which he begged the king to accept, as a token of his profound respect and devotion.
- 7 The king received the horse, and gave the lord the radish. And when he, much disappointed at this trifling return, ventured to remark that there must be some mistake, the king said, "It is deserving of your respect, for it cost a thousand ducats."
- 8 Such is the reward of covetousness.

THE NEW HAT.

- 1 What a beautiful thing is a box hat, if one only possessed it.
- 2 For money one can buy almost anything.
- 3 When in fine clothes, pride often takes possession of the man.
- 4 He forgets to take the precaution of carrying an umbrella.
- 5 The storm rages, and he rushes he knows not where.
- 6 He seeks shelter under a tree, having more care for his hat than himself.
- 7 The tree is struck by lightning, and terror strikes the man.
- 8 When behold! the hat has taken quite another shape.
- 9 He returns home with his pride humbled, and has learnt that precaution is necessary even with a new hat.

THE DEATH OF THE BLUEBOTTLE.

- 1 Dr. Snootum as he appeared after dinner.
- 2 A bluebottle pitches on a sensitive part.
- 3 The Dr. wages war with his tormenter.
- 4 A favourable opportunity for capturing his enemy.
- 5 The Doctor finds that it is attended with disastrous results.
- 6 Before killing him the Doctor wishes to have a look at the insect.
- 7 After a desperate struggle the Dr. escapes, leaving a leg behind.
- 8 The Doctor mounts up in his chair, determined to conquer.
- 9 But unexpectedly descends, chair and all.
- 10 Exciting conflict, as the windows and towers testify.
- 11 The Doctor's delight at the downfall of his foe.
- 12 Final tableau—total annihilation of the fly.

THE DUCKS AND FROG.

- 1 A duck and a drake are diving in search of prey.
- 2 The duck has caught a frog.
- 3 The drake thinks he has a right to a share.
- 4 Between them both the frog undergoes a variety of tortures.
- 5 The duck prevents the drake from swallowing him entire.
- 6 Whilst they are throttling each other the frog bolts.
- 7 The frog leaps into the pump-trough; the ducks search after him.
- 8 The frog runs for his life, pursued by the ducks.
- 9 The frog has the good sense to go where the ducks cannot follow him.
- 10 The ducks are unable to get their heads out, so there they have to stay quacking.
- 11 The poulterer comes by and carries off the ducks.
- 12 The frog was laid up for three weeks, but now, thank goodness, he is able to smoke his pipe.

MIDNIGHT ADVENTURES WITH A FLEA.

- 1 Mr. Morphew's sweet slumbers disturbed by a flea.
- 2 He finds that to sleep is impossible.
- 3 He searches for the tormenting insect.
- 4 He continues the search, even in his nightcap.
- 5 Not succeeding, he looks in the bed.
- 6 Determined to find him, he turns up the bed.
- 7 Ah! he feels him in his stocking. He gets up.
- 8 And, by holding the candle close, discovers his enemy.
- 9 Fearing that he may hop away, he wets his finger.
- 10 He has got him at last, but he may hop yet.
- 11 With the aid of a pin he burns him in the candle.
- 12 He gets into bed, and sleeps like a top.

THE THREE KITTENS THAT LOST THEIR MITTENS.

- 1 Mrs. Puss and her kittens are out, when they meet a stranger.
- 2 What, lost your mittens, you naughty kittens!
- 3 Go seek your mittens, you naughty kittens.
- 4 You foolish kittens, the house is tumbling down.
- 5 Oh, mamma dear, we have found our mittens.
- 6 What, found your mittens—then you shall have some pie.
- 7 The little kittens have to wash their mittens.
- 8 They smell a rat, and throw off their mittens.
- 9 Cap and spectacles are thrown away. They all join in the chase.

JOHNNY GILPIN.

- 1 John Gilpin's spouse said to her dear,
Though wedded we have been These twice ten tedious years, yet we
No holiday have seen.
- 2 So three doors off the chaise was stay'd,
Where they did all get in;
Six precious souls, and all agog,
To dash through thick and thin.
- 3 For saddletree scarce reached had he,
His journey to begin,
When, turning round his head, he saw
Three customers come in.
- 4 'Twas long before the customers
Were suited to their mind;
When Betty screaming came down stairs,
"The wine is left behind."
- 5 But finding soon a smoother road
Beneath his well-shod feet,
The snorting beast began to trot,
Which gall'd him in his seat.
- 6 Away went Gilpin neck or nought,
Away went hat and wig;
He little dream'd, when he set out,
Of running such a rig.
- 7 The dogs did bark, the children scream'd,
Up flew the windows all;
And every soul cried out, well done!
As loud as he could bawl.
- 8 I came because your horse would come,
And if I well forbode,
My hat and wig will soon be here,
They are upon the road.
- 9 Whereat his horse did snort, as he Had heard a lion roar,
And gallop'd off with all his might,
As he had done before.
- 10 And thus unto the youth she said,
That drove them to the Bell,
"This shall be yours when you bring back
My husband safe and well."
- 11 Six gentlemen upon the road
Thus seeing Gilpin fly,
With postboy scamp'ring in the rear,
They raised the hue and cry,
- 12 And so he did, and won it too,
For he got first to town;
Nor stopp'd till where he had got up,
He did again get down.

THE TOOTHACHE.

- 1 Friend Grimshaw cannot eat his dinner from toothache.
- 2 He is recommended to smoke.
- 3 He tries the cold-water cure.
- 4 He tries the hot stove.
- 5 He goes to bed and piles the bed and pillows upon him.
- 6 He calls on Professor Twister.
- 7 The Professor examines the offending tooth.
- 8 He proposes to extract it.
- 9 He has some difficulty in getting him to open his mouth.
- 10 He succeeds in extracting the tooth.
- 11 Grimshaw pays the Professor his fee.
- 12 He returns and eats a hearty meal with his better half.

THE ROBBERS.

- 1 Two robbers asking for charity at an old gentleman's house.
- 2 He regulates them in a sumptuous manner.
- 3 He fills their bags with the broken victuals.
- 4 They return at night to break into the house.
- 5 They commence the attack.
- 6 The old man is quietly reading, and hears the noise.
- 7 He drops from the window to surprise them.
- 8 They have succeeded in getting their bodies partly through.
- 9 The old man comes very quietly round the corner.
- 10 He nails them securely to the wall.
- 11 No labours them well with his whip.
- 12 The robbers go home wiser, and, we hope, better men.

THE DONKEY AND THE MILL.

- 1 The peasant and his donkey hasten to the mill.
- 2 He fastens his donkey to the sail of the mill.
- 3 The wicked miller sets the mill going.
- 4 Up goes the donkey.
- 5 The poor man hangs by the donkey's tail.
- 6 The hair gives way, and down he comes.
- 7 The miller is enjoying the sport.
- 8 The peasant gets knocked over by the mill.
- 9 The mill stops, but the donkey is dead. He vows vengeance.
- 10 At night he comes and saws away the mill.
- 11 Crack, crack, and at last over goes the mill and miller.
- 12 This is the miller's punishment, and the peasant's revenge.

THE JUVENILE SMOKERS.

- 1 Tom and Harry buy two cigars to smoke like men.
- 2 Their Mother peeps over the wall and sees them.
- 3 The Minister passes; they hide their cigars behind them.
- 4 They light their cigars again.
- 5 The smoke overpowers them. Tom is on the ground, and Harry leans against the wall.
- 6 They sneak home, and are lectured for their folly.

THE TALE OF A TUB.

- 1 While spinning yarns under the shade of the tub, they are startled by a loud roar.
- 2 The spring to their feet and dodge the tiger round the tub.
- 3 The chase grows warm, but they still keep the tub between them.
- 4 The baffled tiger attempts to spring over the tub.
- 5 Assisted by all parties, the tub performs a summersault, and the men sit upon the top to keep the tiger under.
- 6 While wondering if they should ever get down, the tiger twists his tail through the lung hole.

- 7 A bright idea seizes them, and they seize the tail.
- 8 Clinging to it for dear life, they get a ride over the sandy plain.
- 9 The tiger pauses somewhat exhausted, and they succeed in tying the knot.
- 10 They let go the tail, and the tiger runs off with the tub.
- 11 The tiger makes his way to the jungle, but never gets rid of the tub.
- 12 So for ever afterwards all the little tigers were born with tubs to their tails.

THE WORLD INVERTED.

- 1 The Boots blacking the Maid.
- 2 The Coat dusting the Girl.
- 3 The Baby feeding Mama.

- 4 The Cow guiding the plough.
- 5 The tree sawing the man.
- 6 The Pig killing the Butcher.

THE TWO HOUSEBREAKERS.

- 1 Having watched their opportunity, they effect an entrance in the pawnbroker's shop.
- 2 One watches the sleeper while the other rides the drawers.
- 3 The pawnbroker awakes in a perspiration, and is dared to move.
- 4 But he seizes the pistol hanging at his head and fires.
- 5 The burglars gag him and tie him hand and foot.
- 6 And hang him up out of the way.

- 7 The cook in the next room raises the window.
- 8 Her tongue is silenced.
- 9 Two policemen enter the window, and the two burglars enter a closet.
- 10 On being summoned to surrender, they rush to the window under cover of umbrellas.
- 11 But the ladder has been removed, and their downward course is rapid.
- 12 The umbrellas prove their ruin.

THE LAZY TRAVELLER.

- 1 The landlady gently attempts to waken the traveller, but is not heard.
- 2 A second attempt is more successful.
- 3 The traveller commences the operation of washing and dressing.
- 4 The landlady reminds him that he had no time to lose.
- 5 In his hurry he puts on his boots before his trousers.
- 6 The landlady assists him in getting them off again.

- 7 The trousers are put on hinder side before.
- 8 He puts his arm into the wrong sleeve of his coat.
- 9 He vents his rage on the landlady.
- 10 He hears the whistle of the train, and starts at a run.
- 11 He tumbles over the steps, to the landlady's amusement. The train goes on.
- 12 Having lost the train he has time for reflection.

THE LITTLE ARTIST AND

- 1 He uses it as a shelter from the rain.
- 2 It serves as a raft.
- 3 As a tent to screen him from the burning sun.
- 4 He performs a sledge ride upon it.
- 5 It protects him from an avalanche.

THE LARGE PORTFOLIO.

THE STOLEN SAUSAGE.

- 1 Master Fritz, his papa, his sister, and his uncle returning home with a sausage they have bought.
- 2 While Fritz is thinking how much will come to his share, his little dog steals it and runs in. They all give chase.
- 3 The cook, having gone down into the cellar to count out the potatoes for dinner, has left the trap-door open.
- 4 Fritz, too eager in the pursuit to notice this, tumbles down upon the cook, putting an end to all her calculations.

- 5 Fritz's papa follows his son, and the cook is knocked positively flat.
- 6 Fritz's sister pitches upon her papa, and the cook is pressed comparatively flatter.
- 7 Fritz's uncle falls upon the top, and the cook is squeezed superlatively flattest.
- 8 Bruised and crestfallen they mount to the surface again.
- 9 They continue the search. The dog having in meantime eaten the sausage, has a quiet laugh behind the door.

THE SLEDGE PARTY.

- 1 Master Fritz takes a ride on their new sledge.
- 2 He overtakes the schoolmaster deep in thought.
- 3 And trips him up before he knows where he is.
- 4 A little further on is a hunter with his dog at his heels.
- 5 He and his dog tumble into the lap of the schoolmaster.
- 6 The way gets steeper and the descent more rapid.

- 7 An old market woman vainly tries to escape.
- 8 She is compelled to join the party.
- 9 They are all thrown over a precipice.
- 10 They have not far to fall, and the snow is soft.
- 11 They easily extricate themselves and fall to chastising each other.
- 12 They separate in no way pleased with their journey.

THE RIVAL LOVERS.

- 1 Mina will not listen to the addresses of the Sultan.
- 2 He orders her to be kept a prisoner till she changes her mind.
- 3 Arthur disguised as a minstrel, bribes her jailor with the rum bottle.
- 4 He is allowed to play before her window.
- 5 She recognises and intrcats him to save her.
- 6 He mounts the ladder and embraces her.

- 7 The slave tells the Sultan what is going on.
- 8 They both hasten to the ladder, and have nearly reached the window.
- 9 When Arthur and Mina, rushing out below, knock it over.
- 10 In the confusion they made good their escape.
- 11 They enter a boat and sail for a happier shore.
- 12 Leaving the Sultan and his slave to settle their own affairs.

- 1 The sweep timidly takes a kiss from Nanny.
- 2 To his horror he sees the miller on more intimate terms than himself.
- 3 In a rage he rushes after his bold rival.
- 4 The miller, unable to hide, gets a hiding.
- 5 The sweep has to retreat up the chimney.
- 6 The miller, who cannot follow him, tries to wash him out of it.

- 7 Though he could not follow him up, against his will he follows him down.
- 8 They fall into the box at the bottom.
- 9 Nanny and Fanny sit upon the box in triumph.
- 10 The tables are completely turned.
- 11 The confusion that results from not knowing whom you love.
- 12 They make it up, and love each other two and two.

THE BOOKWORM.

- 1 He wipes the dust from his spectacles and puts them on.
- 2 He lights his cigar and begins to read.
- 3 He forgets his cigar, and is absorbed in his book.
- 4 He is in the middle of a most interesting chapter.
- 5 When he is startled by the cat jumping up on his shoulder.
- 6 Annoyed at the interruption, he kicks her downstairs.

- 7 He is again lost in his book.
- 8 His lamp is growing dim for want of oil.
- 9 Still reading by the light of a candle, he spiffs the paraffin.
- 10 A fearful explosion takes place. The book-worm, where is he!
- 11 With much difficulty and a quantity of water his life is saved.
- 12 He lies in bed a pitiable object, the victim of his own folly.

DAME PERKINS AND HER GREY MARE.

By permission of Sampson Low, Son, and Marston.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 The old grey mare was trotted out, And rubbed adown with straw ; As grim and gaunt an old grey mare As ever bumpkin saw. | 5 With one light bound she cleared the leap, Nor brushed it with her legs. Ah ! woe betide the curds and cheese, And woe betide the eggs. |
| 2 " Plague take thee, Sal," Dame Perkins said, " If at this stumbling gait A dozen miles I am to ride, I'll get to Worcester late." | 6 A famous swimmer was the mare, How well she plied her legs ; Ah ! woe betide the curds and cheese, And woe betide the eggs. |
| 3 At length, as from an ugly dream, She woke with sudden snort, Pricked up her ears, and shook her head, Then all at once stopped short. | 7 It mattered little to the mare, She hadn't time to wait ; With Perkins eling to her neck, She cleared the turnpike gate. |
| 4 On came the hounds and huntsmen all, And shrill the blast they blew ; With red cloak streaming out behind, Away Dame Perkins flew. | 8 Regardful of my due, a pad Content am I to claim, And with all gallantry award The brush to Perkins' dame. |

ALICE'S ADVENTURES IN WONDERLAND.

By LEWIS CARROLL.

Illustrated by John Tenniel. Copied by permission of Macmillan & Co.

- 1 The Rabbit actually took a watch out of his waistcoat-pocket.
- 2 She came upon a low curtain she had not noticed before.
- 3 Tied round the neck of the bottle was a paper label, with the words, Drink Me.
- 4 "Now I'm opening out like the largest telescope that ever was."
- 5 The Rabbit started violently, dropped the white kid gloves and fan.
- 6 Splash! she was up to her chin in salt water.
- 7 It was only a mouse that had slipped in like herself.
- 8 They all sat down at once in a large ring with the mouse in the middle.
- 9 "Hand it over here," said the Dodo.
- 10 She put one arm out of the window and one foot up the chimney.
- 11 She suddenly put out her hand and made a snatch in the air.
- 12 "Something comes at me like a jack-in-the-box, and up I goes like a sky-rocket."
- 13 She picked up a little bit of stick and held it up to the puppy.
- 14 The caterpillar and Alice looked at each other for some time in silence.
- 15 "And yet you incessantly stand on your head."
- 16 "Yet you turned a back somersault in at the door."
- 17 "Yet you finished the goose with the bones and the beak."
- 18 "Yet you balanced an eagle on the end of your nose."
- 19 The fish-footman began by producing from under his arm a great letter.
- 20 The duchess was sitting on a three-legged stool in the middle, nursing a baby.
- 21 "Now, what am I to do with this creature when I get home?"
- 22 "Oh, you can't help that," said the cat, "we're all mad here."
- 23 And this time it vanished slowly, beginning with the end of the tail.
- 24 The hatter opened his eyes very wide on hearing this.
- 25 "It goes on, you know," the hatter continued, "in this way."
- 26 They were trying to put the dormouse into the teapot.
- 27 "I couldn't help it," said Five, in a sulky tone, "Seven jogged my elbow."
- 28 "What's your name, child?"
- 29 The chief difficulty Alice found at first was in managing her Hamingo.
- 30 The king's argument was that anything that had a head could be beheaded.
- 31 "I am glad to see you again," said the duchess, as she tucked her arm affectionately into Alice's.
- 32 If you don't know what a gryphon is, look at the picture.
- 33 "Once," said the mock turtle, with a sigh, "I was a real turtle."
- 34 So they began solemnly dancing round and round Alice.
- 35 "You have baked me too brown, I must sugar my hair."
- 36 The knave was standing before them in chains.
- 37 The white rabbit blew three blasts on his trumpet, and called out "First witness."
- 38 The wretched hatter trembled, so that he shook both his shoes off.
- 39 The hatter hurriedly left the court without even waiting to put on his shoes.
- 40 She jumped up in such a hurry that she tripped over the jury box.
- 41 "Why, there they are!" said the king triumphantly, pointing to the tarts on the table.
- 42 At this the whole pack rose up into the air, and came flying down upon her.

SONGS FROM ALICE'S ADVENTURES IN WONDERLAND.

FAITHLESS NELLY GRAY.

From "The Graphic."

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 A cannon ball took off his legs.
2 For here I leave my second leg.
3 The army surgeons made him limbs.
4 But when he called on Nelly Gray.
5 The love that loves a scarlet coat.
6 But I will never have a man. | 7 At duty's call I left my legs.
8 Though I've no feet, some other man.
9 For you will be my death, alas!
10 And life was such a burthen grown.
11 And there he hung till he was dead.
12 A dozen men sat on his corpse. |

THE BOTTLE.

- 1 The bottle is brought out for the first time.
- 2 He is discharged from his employment for drunkenness.
- 3 An execution sweeps off the greater part of their furniture.
- 4 They are driven by poverty into the streets to beg. They still supply the bottle.
- 5 Cold, misery, and want destroy their youngest child. The bottle still consoles them.

- 6 Fearful quarrels, the natural consequence of the frequent use of the bottle.
- 7 He kills his wife with the instrument of all their misery, the bottle.
- 8 The bottle has done its work. It has destroyed the infant and the mother, it has brought the son and the daughter to vice and to the streets, and has left the father a hopeless maniac.

|--|--|
| 1 Frontispiece—the Golden mean of temperance. | 8 "A common incident of blighted life: |
| 2 "With memories black of many a bitter blow,
Dealt when the father's soul was dark with gin." | Mourn for the wretched sufferers—child and wife." |
| 3 "Hungry and footsore, and without a bed;
Starving—yet dare not touch the meat and bread." | 9 "See the degraded wretch we picture here;
He blights the corn before it reach the ear." |
| 4 "A miserable tramp through the streets:
No aid she asks; no sympathy she meets." | 10 "Over the lone grave of the suicide." |
| 5 "She is not in the streets; beneath the trees,
That shade her girlhood-home, she sits." | 11 "No better men when sober: drunk none worse." |
| 6 "Is it too late to save him! God, we pray
His guardian angel may not pass away." | 12 "The artist paints him—lowest of the low:
Alas! Giles Jonson; 'twas not always so!" |
| 7 "Ten thousand devils haunt him day and night;
Haunt him alike in darkness and in light." | 13 "And let the artist draw his picture now;
Draw Farmer Jonson—home from his own plough." |
| | 14 "They laid the dead wife on the floor." |

- 13 "She may be welcomed by the Seraphim, Where SINNERS PENITENT find pardoning grace."
- 16 "And when the babe was dead
'Twas 'accidental death' the jury said."
- 17 "This happened in New Zealand: they had placed
A drunken Maori in the public stocks."
- 18 "These are the sisters, mothers, daughters, wives:
Hopeful—yet doubtful—all may not be spent."
- 19 "ENTER THE PRISON: see the good man there,
Who from the death-doomed sinner drives despair."
- 20 "The artist saw this scene in London Square,
One night of snow, or nearer early morning."

- 21 " ' Looking for father,' that the artist saw;
And that some guiding spirit bade him draw."
- 22 "Can you not guess what these pool-bubbles mean,
Though of the self-drowned woman nought is seen?"
- 23 "Where are his wife and children—both he had!
Go ask the parish paupers—one is mad."
- 24 "Full! there are many hundred children more
Who shrink and shiver round the closed door."
- 25 "They've said their evening hymn and prayer, and sleep,
While guardian angels watch and ward will keep."

GRAY'S ELEGY.

- 1 Title, with picture of Stoke Pogis Church.
 2 The curfew tolls the knell of parting day.
 3 Now fades the glimmering landscape on the sight.
 4 The moping owl does to the moon complain.
 5 Beneath those rugged elms, that yew tree's shade.
 6 The breezy call of incense breathing morn.
 7 For them no more the blazing hearth shall burn.
 8 How bowed the woods beneath their sturdy stroke.
 9 Let not ambition mock their useful toil.
 10 The paths of Glory lead but to the grave.
 11 Can storied urn, or animated bust.
 12 Perhaps in this neglected spot is laid.
 13 Some village Hampden.
 14 Forbade to wade through slaughter to a throne.
 15 Some frail memorial still erected nigh.
 16 On some fond breast the parting soul relies.
 17 "Oft have we seen him at the peep of dawn."
 18 "There at the foot of yonder nodding beech."
 19 Slow through the churchway path we saw him borne.
 20 Here rests his head upon the lap of earth.

NELLY'S DARK DAYS.

From Life Models.

- 1 The girls sat down on a door-step.
 2 Bessie kept Nelly back from spicing forward to meet her father.
 3 "Heigh! Mr. Rodney, Sir, please to open the door again!"
 4 And leaned his head upon her small shoulder.
 5 Rodney sank down on his knees.
 6 "You don't know where those v'lets come from!" she cried.
 7 He saw the thin ragged frock catch the eye.
 8 He fell forward, dashing his head violently upon the pavement.
 9 A woman was sitting on a low stool nursing a wailing baby.
 10 He could only be admitted to the casual ward for the night.
 11 The lecture had just begun.
 12 Rodney signed the pledge.
 13 He reached his old cottage home.
 14 She was lying on a little couch beneath the lattice window.

1 God of Eternity.	10 Try and do better.
2 Wrapt up in self.	11 Don't fret.
3 Wonderful power of the Gospel	12 Hold on.
4 Anger.	13 He knows.
5 A temperance song.	14 Our watchword.
6 There's work enough to do.	15 Blessed are they that do.
7 The work of love.	16 Give freely.
8 Do right.	17 Good night.
9 Rejoice in the Lord.

JOHN TREGENOWETH: HIS MARK.

1 The old man and I sat together.	11 He got out the paper and wrote something down.
2 I opened the door.	12 He comes back and puts a bundle in my hands.
3 All of a sudden there came an awful blaze of light.	13 She flings away the old one and puts on another.
4 Light a candle, Mary, 'tis so dark.	14 Mary, lead me to a corner just inside the door.
5 Betty at the Washbub.	15 Follow me.
6 She would sing as I played.	16 The Donkey and Cart.
7 Then the little maid would sit by my side.	17 The new Parson.
8 She was praying for me.	18 Let nothing, O Lord, interrupt this holy peace.
9 Here's the old Fiddle.
10 My hand rested upon the scar of the wound.

| 6 Come let us join. | 15 And now appear the shades of night. |
| 7 The Guiding Hand. | 16 Come, ye blessed. |
| 8 Yet there is room. | 17 In silence unbroken. |
| 9 Cheerful voices. | 18 Blessed is the people. (Anthem.) |

GABRIEL GRUB.

The Story of the Sexton who was Stolen by the Goblins. With Special Reading, published by Chapman & Hall,

• Introduction.

- 1 Kissing under the mistletoe.
- 1a Old Wardle's story.
- 2 Panorama—An old Abbey Town.
- 3 He sat himself down on a flat tombstone.
- 4 Close to him was a strange unearthly figure.
- 5 Playing at leapfrog with the tombstones.
- 6 He found himself in a large dark cavern.
- 7 A thick cloud rolled gradually away.
- 8 A crowd of little children were gathered round.
- 9 He was wet and weary.
- 10 Then he sat down to his meal.

- *11 The fairest and youngest child lay dying.
- *12 The father and mother were old and helpless now.
- *13 The few who yet survived then knelt by their tomb.
- 14 A rich and beautiful landscape was disclosed.
- *15 Lying at full length on the tombstone.
- *16 The lantern, the spade, and the wicker bottle.
- *17 He told his story to the Clergyman and to the Mayor.

* These are all taken from life.

No. . Panorama and effect will count as four slides, making the set equal to 22.

SAMBO'S FIVE SENSES.

JANE CONQUEST. (New Edition).

This poem has been re-written by Dr. CROFT, late Honorary Managing Director of the Royal Polytechnic.

- *1 And her child was dying.
- *2 Up to her feet rose she.
- 3 She saw a gallant ship.
- *4 She sank to her knees and made.
- *5 Angel effect. Take though my boy.
- 6 The snow lay deep.
- 7 Stood the old grey church.
- *8 And grasped the rope, sole cord of hope.

- *9 And then it ceased its ringing.
- 10 Midst the breakers.
- 11 Saved from the wreck.
- *12 Within the silent darkened room.
- *13 Sinks fainting on the ground.
- *14 He finds her lying there.
- *15 'Tis Harry Conquest.
- *16 The suffering Boy, her darling Boy.

No. 5, angel effect, repeated with No. 15.

* From Life Models, suggested by Dr. Croft.

The Poem may be had in quantities at a reduced price for sale at Entertainments.

Extract from Letter received from DR. CROFT.

"You have my full permission to authorize every one who purchases a set of Jane Conquest to recite it in public. Any authority given by you (and you had better give it in writing) is valid."

ENOCH ARDEN.

By TENNYSON. Life Models.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 A long street climbs to one tall-tower'd mill.
 2 Three children of three houses.
 3 Enoch and Annie, sitting hand in hand.
 4 The rosy idol of her solitudes.
 5 Enoch parted with his old sea-friend.
 6 Enoch cast his arms about his drooping wife.
 7 The mother cared for it with all a mother's care.
 8 He set himself beside her.
 9 It is beyond all hope, against all chance.
 10 Suddenly set it wide to find a sign. | 11 Her Enoch sitting under a palm-tree.
 12 Enoch bought quaint monsters.
 13 The loss of all but Enoch and two others.
 14 So the three dwelt with eternal summer.
 15 A ship-wreck'd sailor waiting for a sail.
 16 A bill of sale gleam'd thro' the drizzle.
 17 But Miriam Lane was good and garrulous.
 18 That which he better might have shunn'd he saw.
 19 Woman, I have a secret.
 20 And so fell back and spoke no more. |

LITTLE TIZ.

A Temperance Story by Rev. David Macrae. Illustrated by Life Models.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 It was a last will and testament | 8 She peered out into the dark |
| 2 A party at Mr. Lorraine's, Langside Hall | 9 She fell with a sudden gasp |
| 3 "Come, we must have a song from Little Tiz." | 10 "Ye bide up that court, Mrs. Mactavish" |
| 4 Little Tiz and George in the library | 11 Oh, merciful heaven, the sight! |
| 5 In the woods, the necklace of flowers | 12 Crouching over the miserable fire |
| 6 Dr. Pearson's little parlour | 13 Little Tiz put her tiny arms round his neck |
| 7 "I've been thinking of a plan" | 14 In the silent valley of death |

TEMPERANCE ENTERTAINMENT, NO. 1.

A SERVICE OF SONG.

THE RAPIDS.

By J. B. Gough.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Opening Hymn, "Praise my Soul the King of Heaven." | 3 Now you see the water foaming all around. |
| 2 Ahoy! "What is it"? The Rapids are below you. | 4 Ah! Ah!—it is too late. |
| | 5 (Hymn) "Almost Persuaded" now to Believe. |

THE WIFE'S STORY.

By Mrs. M. S. Walker.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 6 Just peep into the pantry, Ma'am. | 10 The children were afraid of him. |
| 7 He used to sneak along the streets. | 11 The boys will frolic round his chair. |
| 8 He looks the world now in the face. | 12 Father in Heaven, Oh, help dear John. |
| 9 Of all his men the steadiest one is John. | 13 (Hymn) "Try, John! Try, John!" |

DRUNKENNESS.

By T. de Witt Talmage.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 14 Many think there is no peril in home drinking. | 18 What graceful manners! what brilliant prospects! |
| 15 They banter, and jeer, and howl, and vomit. | 19 The doctor binds up the gashes received in a fight. |
| 16 The father comes at nightfall. | 20 (Hymn) "Give me no Fatal Wine Cup." |
| 17 The wife and daughter sewing for the stores. | |

THE DRUNKARD'S STORY.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 21 I dodged behind a lamp post. | 24 Told how someone in the Thames had found. |
| 22 Ah! I once had friends and kinsfolk. | 25 (Hymn) "Rescue the Perishing." |
| 23 Oh! those years of maddest revel. | |

AN EVENING IN A GIN PALACE.

By Mrs. Henry Wood.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 26 Will you allow me the privilege of waiting here! | 28 "Hear to him!" he wont trust me. |
| 27 They were coming in thick and threefold. | 29 "Who says I am to be done!" cried she. |
| | 30 (Hymn) "The Prodigal Child." |

THOU ART THE MAN.

By Alexander G. Murdoch.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 31 Wept tears when the drink fit was on him. | 36 On his breast, crown'd with smiles she was leaning. |
| 32 But he scolded her out of his presence. | 37 Till the dawn, looking in on that night's work. |
| 33 He grappi'd with phantoms that dragg'd him. | 38 And they dragged him away to the cell. |
| 34 Next moment, death's presence stood by him. | 39 (Hymn) "Touch not the Cup." |
| 35 And laugh'd o'er her corpse where it lay. | |

LOTTY'S MESSAGE.

By Alexander G. Murdoch.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 40 How honest Jack Drew was a drunkard. | 46 The strong door was slam'd in her face. |
| 41 A sweet little flaxen hair'd darling. | 47 "Take that!" and she swooned on the floor. |
| 42 And the end, you may guess, wasn't long. | 48 Then placed her upon her straw pallet. |
| 43 And Jack for a moment was sobered. | 49 "Lotty! tell her I've signed—yes signed it!" |
| 44 The pawns' will be shut in a minute. | 50 (Closing hymn) "Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go." |
| 45 Ran out in the cold snows barefooted. | |

| 1 I was taking a bird's-eye view of mighty London. | 7 "Oh! please sir," said Bart, "make them let him go." |
| 2 Two women alighted. | 8 I've got such a beautiful orange for you. |
| 3 A little boy with a basket of oranges. | 9 He sat dejectedly and wearily. |
| 4 Bart's home. | 10 Please, Mr. Brown, this is father. |
| 5 Bart signed the pledge that night. | 11 Children, I am Bart Coxwell's father. |
| 6 He brought Miss Lane in triumph to my house. | 12 Frank Coxwell fell on his knees before her. |

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 It was there he met with a Saracen maid. | 5 The wall was steep, yet she dared to leap. |
| 2 Together they trod the lonely shore. | 6 The listening peasants would round her come. |
| 3 And a figure steps from the shadows forth. | 7 Murmuring "Gilbert," as she went. |
| 4 He spake, and on board he leapt. | 8 God send to every valiant knight a lady as true. |

DOCTOR LARRUP.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 A quizzical old man, armed with a rattan. | 8 Was gradually lower'd through the hole. |
| 2 Who little boys had flogged for many a year. | 9 The doctor soon perceived his apples strayed. |
| 3 They would contrive, by day or night, to steal. | 10 He wisely then concealed himself. |
| 4 So stood the doctor, with face as red. | 11 When at him, out the doctor bounded. |
| 5 The entrance through a trap-door small. | 12 When being seated snug and steady. |
| 6 Fix'd on this loft to put his fruit in. | 13 When lo! up popt the doctor's nob. |
| 7 When one, 'gainst every disappointment proof. | 14 The wicked rascals—let the doctor drop. |

AVENGED!

By Alfred Berlyn.

Illustrated by Life Models.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Read me no more—Leave me, for pity's sake | 8 A dark and stagnant pool o'ergrown with weeds |
| 2 And, from the doorway of our cottage home | 9 Save when I sought a lonely wayside farm |
| 3 I loved him, aye, I loved him, and he lied | 10 And kneeling by its side with white wan face |
| 4 I marked them pass our blighted home | 11 My babe—you bring my babe—my little child! |
| 5 And with an aching heart I left the home door | 12 Its note of dreadful doom: accurs'd! accurs'd! |
| 6 And, listening, stood without her cottage door | |
| 7 Then seized the sleeping babe within my arms | |

LITTLE EM'LY.

In three parts, by Charles Dickens.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 This is a wild kind of place, Steerforth, is it not? | 10 Sit ye down, sir, you're welcome, kind and hearty |
| 2 In a moment we were all shaking hands | 11 Mr. Peggotty thrust forth his face |
| 3 Mr. Peggotty put one of his large hands | 12 In the midst of the silence of death I read |
| 4 "If this ain't," said Mr. Peggotty, sitting down | 13 I'm a going to seek my niece |
| 5 All of a sudden, one evening comes little Em'ly | 14 "No, no," cried Mrs. Gummidge, "not as you are" |
| 6 Ham, I give you joy, my boy, my hand upon that | 15 As we struggled on nearer and nearer |
| 7 Presently they brought her to the fireside | 16 "What is the matter?" I cried |
| 8 They all stood crowded round the door | 17 Then I saw him standing alone, a rope in his hand |
| 9 A little floundering across the sand | 18 They drew him to my feet—insensible—dead |
| | 19 I saw him lying with his head upon his arms |

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 In a miserable garret sat a woman | 13 She came to her favourite seat on his footstool |
| 2 A little girl appeared on the threshold | 14 They did what they could to help |
| 3 Mother, what has become of my father? | 15 I feel stronger to-night, much stronger |
| 4 On one bed lay Mrs. Williams | 16 See here, this is my crossing |
| 5 Thank you for staying with her, Jenny | 17 She sang it well |
| 6 Mother, do you know who Jesus is? | 18 A few moments later a servant ran out |
| 7 Please, Miss Kate, I've brought Jenny Hardy | 19 It's little Jen, he whispered, faintly |
| 8 Jenny kindling the fire | 20 Kneeling in mute agony by her side |
| 9 Why, mother, what's the matter? | 21 Hello, little woman! you're in a hurry |
| 10 Get off your things quickly | 22 Is that you, Mr. Muir? |
| 11 Oh, Miss Kate! Mother, it's Miss Kate! | 23 Is this really true? |
| 12 A piercing cry from the bed interrupted her | 24 Come to me, Jenny, said Mr. Ell |

| 1 I brought her home one lonely day | 7 I brought her home to dreary house |
| 2 "Who is he?" the gossips would often ask | 8 "He will come again," she would often cry |
| 3 Jack was my sweetheart | 9 A group of men with faces white |
| 4 The dying gift from a mother's hand | 10 My heart stood still with an awful fear |
| 5 One morning there came to our quiet town, a sailor | 11 They carried her home |
| 6 I knelt me down in my sorrow deep | 12 "Jack's little sister, Kate!" |

SKATING EXPERIENCES.

By CHARLES DICKENS. (From Drawings.)

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 "What say you to an hour on the ice!" | 12 Mr. Pickwick went slowly down the slide |
| 2 Old Wardle led the way to a large piece of ice | 13 Mr. Snodgrass and Winkle grasped each other's hand |
| 3 Mr. Bob Sawyer describes circles with his left leg | 14 Mr. Tupman ran, screaming "Fire" with all his might |
| 4 Mr. Winkle forcing a gimlet in the soles of his feet | 15 Disclosed the features and spectacles of Mr. Pickwick |
| 5 Mr. Winkle was raised to his feet | 16 A vast quantity of splashing and cracking and struggling |
| 6 A frantic desire to throw his feet in the air | 17 "Let me wrap this shawl round you, Mr. Pickwick" |
| 7 Mr. Winkle stooping forward, his body doubled up | 18 Skimming over the ground without any defined purpose |
| 8 With a loud crash they both fall down | |
| 9 Sam assisted him to rise | |
| 10 "You're an imposter, sir" | |
| 11 Away went the good-tempered fellow down the slide | |

SHOOTING EXPERIENCES.

From the "Pickwick Papers." (Drawings.)

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Pulled up by a gate at the roadside | 5 Like a couple of privates at a royal funeral |
| 2 Sam Weller apprehends danger from Mr. Winkle | 6 What's the matter with the dog's legs? |
| 3 Mr. Pickwick in a barrow—bringing up the rear. | 7 Mr. Winkle starts back as if he had been shot |
| 4 I know that gun of Tupman's is not safe | 8 Bravo, you fired that time, at all events |
| | 9 It goes off of its own accord |
| | 10 Tupman—you singled out that particular bird |

BOB SAWYER'S PARTY.

By CHARLES DICKENS. (Drawings.)

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Bob Sawyer and Ben Allen at home | 5 That's the most extraordinary case I ever heard of |
| 2 Mr. Sawyer, Mrs. Raddle wants to speak to you | 6 The supper was not easily got ready |
| 3 Mrs. Raddle raises her voice to its highest pitch | 7 The King, God bless him |
| 4 Does Mr. Sawyer live here? said Mr. Pickwick | 8 Get along with you, you old wretch! |

A HUMOROUS CURE FOR DRUNKENNESS.

(From Drawings.)

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 I say that he is continually drunk | 4 John being thus dismissed is carried to bed |
| 2 John one evening overturned the coach in Hyde Park | 5 John has no company but the old woman as nurse |
| 3 The Earl ordered John into his presence | 6 I humbly ask your lordship's pardon |

BOUGHT AND SOLD—

"And thereby hangs a tail." (From Drawings.)

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Dealer soliloquising: "Worth money if 'e 'ad a good tail! See if I don't get 'im one" | 7 He attracts a knowing customer |
| 2 Procures a suitable appendage from a lately defunct animal | 8 Who after looking him over pays a stiff figure for him |
| 3 And prepares for fitting it on | 9 And takes him home, where he meets with a delightful reception |
| 4 The fixing completed with a little strong glue | 10 Next day his new master thinks he'll wash him |
| 5 The dog is tied up to dry. A final touch up with comb and brush conceals the junction | 11 The result is a fearful revelation |
| 6 The dealer's wife declares "It's been the making of the dawg" | 12 Nobody is more astounded than the dealer, but he consents to buy the dog back for one-eighth the original price |

| 1 Last night, as Jim sat smoking.
 2 Sundays they'd come to tea.
 3 She'd seat herself in the window.
 4 We all went to Richmond Park.
 5 And presently up comes Charlie to Jim.
 6 Things went on very pleasantly till Christmas Day.
 7 "Why, Georgel" says Sall, "where's Charlie?"
 8 And put it down beside him.
 9 "That's the tale he tells to the foreman." | 10 'Twas the face of a man that's ruined.
 11 The next minute he was sobbing.
 12 And though 'twas burnt up dreadful.
 13 And Sally, she overhears it.

Illustrated by Life Models.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 A shipwrecked man. | 8 And Jimmy, he lifted and carried him in. |
| 2 Lost on the sea. | 9 We had to fetch the doctor. |
| 3 He told us he was an orphan. | 10 Just after midnight he spoke to me. |
| 4 Once he fell ill and I nursed him. | 11 I knelt down on the floor. |
| 5 And there was Dave, our lodger. | 12 I could show you a little cottage, to-day, |
| 6 I fell straight down at his feet. | in a Surrey lane. |
| 7 I sat there, dreamy, for a minute, in the heat. | |

- 6 "We saw the Coastguard Station"
- 7 "I stood some minutes, watching, to see a sea-gull pass"
- 8 "Annie," he says, "we've lost him."
- 9 A splendid-looking coastguard, a-sitting at his tea

- 10 He laid himself flat on the turf
- 11 And over the edge he was swung
- 12 I hid my eyes from the sight
- 13 The vast white cliff that rose upward, like a white wall
- 14 Striking his knife in the orannies, and holding on to the hilt!
- 15 And held him safe till the ropes came
- 16 Jim gave him his watch
- 17 Now, young'un, no more of these larks
- 18 Thank God! for the brave hearts beating in the coastguards of Beachy Head

DR. LYNN'S FIRST CASE.

By FAYE HUNTINGTON. Illustrated by Life Models.

How bright and fair this world might be
Were man more often known
To try and mend, not others' faults,
But, better far, their own.

T.H.E.

- 1 Bass and Lynn were going home from school
- 2 "We did have a good time going nutting"
- 3 I peeped through a crack in the door"
- 4 "I went out to feed the rabbits"
- 5 He was under the influence of strong drink
- 6 "Mama, let us sit here, and watch the old year out"

- 7 He bowed his head upon his hands in agony of soul
- 8 In response to his invitation, a stranger came in
- 9 The girl had dropped asleep, her head pillowed on the mother's lap
- 10 "Dear wife, dear daughter, it is a happy new year!"

LIFE MODELS.

CALVARY.

SACRED SONG. Words by HENRY VAUGHAN. Music by PAUL RODNEY.

Illustrated by Life Models.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 The pilgrims throng through the city gates.
2 They go to watch on Calvary's Hill.
3 As they list to His words of love. | 4 O lay down thy burden, O come unto Me.
5 For looking on high to the Cross He bore.
6 Though life may be dreary, earth is not thy goal. |
|---|---|

NAZARETH.

SACRED SONG composed by CHARLES GOUNOD. English words by H. F. CHORLEY.

Illustrated by Life Models.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Tho' poor be the chamber, come here and adore.
2 Tell what was told by angel voices near.
3 Led by the beam whose warning bade you come. | 4 Your crowns cast down, with robes royal enfold Him,
5 Wind, to the cedars proclaim the joyful story.
6 All broad and bright rises th' eternal
Morning Star. |

A HEAVENLY SONG.

ILLUSTRATED SONG: FROM LIFE.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Introduction.
2 I heard a song so fair. | 3 Again the music of that song.
4 The vision of angels seemed to rise. |
|--|---|

LIFE'S LULLABY.

ILLUSTRATED SONG: FROM LIFE.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Introduction.
2 The mothers in the twilight.
3 The toilers in the field are waiting for the nightfall.
4 The peaceful twilight comes at last. | 5 Art listening in the twilight to hear the angels' song?
6 Who bids His angels say, "Lullaby, sleep, and do not fear." |
|---|--|

THE NEW KINGDOM.

ILLUSTRATED SONG: FROM LIFE.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Introduction.
2 Two friendless children.
3 She would tell him a wonderful story. | 4 Roses that cost not a penny: lilies that never fade.
5 One night when the snow was falling.
6 He knew that the stranger had come. |
|--|--|

THE FLIGHT OF AGES.

ILLUSTRATED SONG: FROM LIFE.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Introduction.
2 I heard a song—'twas sung for me alone. | 3 I have a rose—it lies in an old book, faded.
4 I have a love—the love of years. |
|--|---|

WHILE SHEPHERDS WATCHED THEIR FLOCKS BY NIGHT.

Illustrated by Life Models.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 While shepherds watched their flocks by night.
2 "Fear not," said he; for mighty dread.
3 "To you, in David's town this day." | 4 "The Heavenly Babe you there shall find."
5 Worthwith appeared a shining throng.
6 "All glory be to God on high." |

TALES FROM DRAWINGS.

THE ELEPHANT AND THE EXPLORERS.

COMIC: FROM DRAWINGS. By permission of "Snap Shots."

- 1 The Naturalist: "Run for your life, Professor! A 'must' elephant is coming"
- 2 The Professor: "We must climb the tree; that is our only hope"
- 3 The Elephant: "I've followed their spoor to the water"

- 4 "Up the palm tree, I'll bet a cocoanut"
- 5 "Come down! it's not the right season for gathering dates, you old fossils"
- 6 "Just look at that," cried the elephant, "Well, the joke's on me this time"

Descriptive matter is on each slide.

A JUNGLE BLOW-OUT.

COMIC: FROM DRAWINGS. By permission of "Snap Shots."

- 1 Like an infant purely human, he is playful—nothing worse
- 2 With a playful push he dropped him where lake wawawumba rolls
- 3 Sir Stanley thought his ducking due to Dr. Obed Lee

- 4 And they filled the air with language, chunk by chunk
- 5 "You're total strangers to me, you must let me give this 'wet'"
- 6 "It is only fair that you, my friends, should now return the treat"

Descriptive matter is on each slide.

DACKEL DRIVES A MOTOR CAR.

COMIC: FROM DRAWINGS.

By permission of "Snap Shots."

- 1 "If I couldn't run a motor, I'd lay me down and dee"
- 2 "We are going backward, say you? What difference does it make?"
- 3 "And they never even warned me we were coming to a stone"

- 4 "Wo-wow! I do believe that tree is steering straight for me!"
- 5 "I knew it was!" he shouted, as he rose above the crash
- 6 "Bring those pieces home, and bring them"—here he chuckled—"one by one"

Descriptive matter is on each slide.

COMIC SHOTLETS.

(From Drawings.)

These have been very carefully chosen and prepared, and are full of real humour and free from vulgarity. Each picture is complete in itself. It will be found a most useful series for many purposes. And is admirably adapted for showing between cinematograph films, in order to make a pleasant break, and so relieve the eye of the strain that is sometimes felt at an unbroken exhibition of films.

ILLUSTRATED HYMNS.

The work of illustrating these hymns has been entrusted to thoroughly competent artists, and no pains have been spared to render the illustrations as appropriate and effective as possible.

141—AMAZING GRACE! HOW SWEET THE SOUND.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Amazing grace! How sweet the sound.
2 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear. | 3 Through many dangers, toils and snares.
4 Yes, when this heart and flesh shall fail. |
|--|---|

142—BEHOLD THE LAMB OF GOD!

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Behold the Lamb of God.
2 Into the sacred flame. | 3 All hail! Incarnate word.
4 Worthy is He alone. |
|---|--|

143—COME, HOLY GHOST.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Come, Holy Ghost, our hearts inspire.
2 Come, Holy Ghost, for moved by Thee. | 3 God through Himself we then shall know. |
|---|--|

144—COME, YE THANKFUL PEOPLE, COME.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Come, ye thankful people, come.
2 All this world is God's own field. | 3 For we know that Thou wilt come.
4 Come then, Lord of mercy, come. |
|---|---|

145—THE DOXOLOGY.

146—THE KING OF LOVE MY SHEPHERD IS.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 The king of love my shepherd is.
2 Where streams of living water flow.
3 Perverse and foolish oft I strayed. | 4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill.
5 Thou spread'st a table in my sight.
6 And so through all the length of days. |
|---|---|

147—SOLDIERS OF CHRIST, ARISE.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Soldiers of Christ, arise.
2 Strong in the Lord of Hosts.
3 Stand then in His great might. | 4 From strength to strength go on.
5 That having all things done,
6 Jesu, eternal Son, we praise Thee and adore. |

| 1 "Mary, there's company coming downstairs."
2 "Now for the garden."
3 The darling's opportunity.
4 "Necessity, the mother of invention."
5 The attack commenced.
6 With results—astonishing. | 7 "Good gracious, wife, come quick, something's the matter! where's precious?"
8 Papa: "Baby, where are you? Tell papa where you are."
9 Mamma: "Lovey, go and call the neighbours in. It's too sweet for anything." |

COMIC SHOTLETS.

(From Drawings.)

This is a continuation of the series which we published last season under the same title. These have been carefully chosen and prepared. They are full of real humour and free from vulgarity. Each picture is complete in itself. It will be found a most useful series for many purposes. And is admirably adapted for showing between cinematograph films, in order to make a pleasant break, and so relieve the eye of the strain that is sometimes felt at an unbroken exhibition of films.

THE BRITISH ROYAL NAVY.

Dreadnought Battleships and Cruisers are the acme of simplicity—one kind of big gun only for battle, the 12-inch weapon with an effective range of twelve miles, and an extreme range of over twenty miles; one kind of small quick-firing gun only for repelling attacks by torpedo craft, the 4-inch, except in the Dreadnought herself, which has 12-pounders of 18 cwt. The general features of these ships are:

Dreadnought Battleships: Speed 21 knots; displacement 18,600 tons, Dreadnought slightly less; armament, ten 12-inch guns in five hooded barbettes of 12 inches of armour, with 20 4-inch quick-firers; 5 torpedo tubes; complete Krupp steel belt 11 inches thick, tapering to 6 inches forward and 4 inches aft; 4 sets of Parsons' turbines, with water-tube boilers; four screws; coal carried (maximum) 2,700 tons, besides oil fuel.

Dreadnought Cruisers: Speed 25 knots estimated, 23 knots actually on service; displacement 17,250 tons; armament eight 12-inch guns, in 4 barbettes of 11 inch armour, with sixteen 4-inch guns; three torpedo tubes; complete belt of 7 inch Krupp steel, tapering to 4 inches fore and aft; 4 sets of Parsons' turbines with water-tube boilers; four screws; coal carried (maximum) 2,000 tons, and oil fuel.

CHORISTER JIM.

By BINGLEY ROWEL.

Service of Song. Fine Story of a Church Chorister.

Illustrated by Life Models.

|---|---|
| 1 Portrait of Chorister Jim
2 Eh! dear, what's 'e been doing this time?
3 So you've come to talk to me about the choir
4 I'll take someone who can behave decently in church
5 Come and shake hands over it, Jim
6 I took Jim to peep into the basket
7 It was Dick Carter who spoke
8 I found Ted an interesting boy
9 If yer like, yer can have my skates a bit
10 I told him Jim was a chorister at the Parish Church
11 Great excitement prevailed among the junior members
12 Yah! yer silly young lunny
13 The whole choir, with the Vicar and Curate, were on the platform
14 Oh! please, sir, do come 15 Now's your chance! You'll be too late in a minute
16 "What thee going to do, Jim?" asked Ted
17 He swam well for his age
18 The little knot of fishermen found their way to the cave
19 The Vicar and the choir sang, "Eternal Father"
20 Only three of the stalwart fishermen remained with us | 21 A few minutes later they came carrying their burdens like babies
22 Well, doctor, what do you think of them?
23 Jim would hardly leave hold of my hand for a moment
24 Yes, the trouble between them was over at last
25 The Vicar found her sitting up waiting for Jim
26 It was a very crowded congregation
27 Jim never sang more beautifully
28 The next instant he had sat down
29 I carried him into the vestry
30 You seemed to be interested in the lad
31 In the vestry I was assailed by countless questions
32 Mrs. Shaw was evidently very feeble
33 "E used to have a spite agin me, yer know
34 Please, sir, do you think I shall ever get well?
35 Are you sorry to think you are going to live with Jesus?
36 Jim, I want to tell you something
37 "Li-lift me up," he gasped
38 I should—like—Dick—to give 'ave him
39 We stood round the open grave
40 While I stand I seem to hear his voice calling back. |

HER ONLY SON.

By HESBA STRETTON.

Illustrated by Life Models.

Reading published by THE RELIGIOUS TRACT SOCIETY.

1 She was sitting alone
2 He sat in the chimney corner
3 She went with him to the door
4 Her chest was packed
5 "Don't go, Joanna"
6 Joanna stood still
7 One of the porters came
8 The driver opened the door
9 "Why, it's mother!"
10 Lighted a candle
11 Stepped to the bed
12 Took the girl
13 Crouched on the floor
14 The room down stairs
15 Fleming sat in the dark
16 Ally and Johnny had a treat

17 She laid her hand on his shoulder
18 Joanna set out one evening
19 In the garret
20 The baby was ailing
21 "You've robbed your mother"
22 Went to the window
23 Lady Drummond
24 "My Lady's been to see you"
25 "Turn out of my house"
26 In the cold dawn
27 "Here's your lost mother"
28 Inquired from the porter
29 "Who is that?"
30 The Vicar and Fleming
31 Falling on his knees
32 Their old home again

A Service of Song, Illustrated by Life Models.

Reading published by JAMES BROADBENT.

1 Introduction
2 The old churchyard
3 The return of the young soldier
4 "Good-bye!"
5 His mother's gift
6 The coach wended its way
7 The regiment embarked
8 Night on the vessel
9 He hastened to the cabin
10 The boat was pushed off
11 It was not the song boat
12 In India, marching up country
13 Sat in his room alone
14 After the battle
15 In deep thought

16 The note from his comrade
17 His head dropped
18 A terrible fight
19 Found in the jungle
20 Read the Fifty-first Psalm
21 Watched beside the bed
22 To take another look
23 He knelt
24 The stained coat
25 The torn Bible
26 "See what saved my life"
27 Invalided home
28 Into a shady lane
29 "What! Hubert?"

1 Introduction
2 With Rachel
3 Bonny
4 I've been thinking
5 "Ta Ta, Daddy"
6 Gave her welcome
7 Knelt at bedside
8 When anyone called
9 Poured out a glass of beer
10 Soldier read a letter
11 You must "Mission" at home
12 Rachel was wild with grief

13 My home is ruined
14 You needn't get excited
15 My mother's gone out
16 "I do," said the boy
17 Inside the porch
18 You hypocrite
19 Things were going badly
20 So much to tell each other
21 A poor drunken creature
22 "Has this woman any relatives?"
23 "Why have you forgiven me?"
